LOCAL ATTRACTIONS & TOURISM

One of the perks of being an au pair is being a tourist and exploring your host city / state. Here are some suggestions of things to do and see during your free time with your host family or on your own.

AROUND TOWN

Knowing your way around town is a good first step to feeling more at home. Access to the local library, post office, coffee shop, faith based organizations, and recreational facilities can help you settle in and start making friends right away.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Train / Bus:

Uber / Lyft / Taxi:

Bike / Walk:

VOLUNTEER

Volunteering is a great way to make friends, practice English and become involved in the community. Here are some suggestions of local places you might like to volunteer during your free time.
